

Mifrenz User Agreement

Unlicensed version

The unlicensed version of Mifrenz is intended only for evaluation (it should not be used by your children until you have purchased a license key). Please be aware that until you purchase a license key, Mifrenz will send reports of how the software is being used and any errors that occur using your child's email account. These reports do not contain the contents of any emails, just information about what features of Mifrenz are being used. Once you have purchased and installed the license key, all reporting will cease.

Installation and Use Agreement

By installing Mifrenz email software you agree to the following:

- 1) Mifrenz Ltd retains all copyright ownership of this software.
- 2) Mifrenz does not accept any liability for any loss of emails that may arise from using Mifrenz.
- 3) Mifrenz does not guarantee to block unwanted emails, but only to assist with blocking of emails.
- 4) Until you have licensed the product, you agree to allow this software to send via email a usage and error log to Mifrenz Ltd each time the software is used. This email will use the email account of the current user (Child).
- 5) Mifrenz relies on a third party email server provider for sending and receiving emails. Mifrenz Ltd does not accept responsibility for any breach of terms and conditions that you agree to with the third party email server provider.
